Keynote Speakers

Friday, November 3 – 9:00-10:30 a.m.

Keynote Speaker: Gloria McDaniel-Hall, Ed.D.

Keynote Speaker: Is BELONGING all that really MATTERS?

Dr. Gloria McDaniel-Hall served as a teacher, school principal, director of school quality, and senior curriculum and instruction specialist with National Heritage Academies during her 39-year tenure as an educator. She is currently an assistant professor in the Educational Leadership Department at National Louis University in Chicago.

Dr. McDaniel-Hall presented at numerous educational conferences and has published several book chapters and articles. She believes passionately that education is the human rights issue of our time. She devoted her life to equity for all members of the school community. Dr. McDaniel-Hall writes children's books devoted to topics related to social-emotional learning. She is currently writing a text titled No Teacher Left Behind.

Friday, November 3 - Luncheon, 12:00-1:30 p.m.

Keynote Speaker: Lani Lawson, BCBA

Keynote Speaker: The Hard Work of Optimism

Lani Lawson is a former classroom teacher and current Board Certified Behavior Analyst (BCBA). She owns Love Your Classroom LLC, and her company is trusted to provide behavioral services to educators in more than 70 school districts in Illinois. Her company's goal is for every teacher to be confident and happy in the classroom, especially regarding student behavior. Her

Teach.Train.Thrive. Workshops® for educators have gained a reputation - educators enjoy attending and walk away with strategies to use that day. Lani believes that every educator should have the resources to create environments that they enjoy teaching in each day.
